Respected Sir,

After NAAC accreditation, it is desirable to show financial support to the deserving students and faculty. We propose the following for student motivation.

After the declaration of University semester examinations, the first two merit holders from each class will be called for a meeting. They will be informed about Swayam portal by MHRD. Various Massive open online courses (MOOCs) are available from different subjects. Students can access it free of charge. But those desirous of certificate, have to complete assignments and appear for exam and pay some fees.

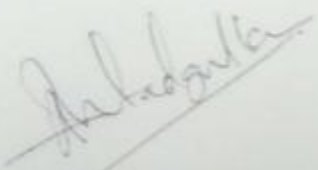

The class toppers will be encouraged to choose an online course of their interest and convenient time frame. They will be asked to submit certificate at the end. The necessary fees per course (upto Rs. 5,000 per head) may be reimbursed by the society as motivation to advanced learners.

You are requested to approve this proposal and sanction payment of Course certification fee of upto Rs. 5,000/- per head, as motivation for advanced learners.
